

THE SPORTIER

Michigan Starts, Ohio Ends

In Rivalry Week, the Michigan Wolverines faced off against Big Ten rivals Ohio State Buckeyes. The Wolverines started off well, taking a 14-7 lead before the half. But with less than 10 seconds left in the quarter, Quarterback J.T. Barrett ran in for the score to tie the game at 14-14. Both teams scored in their first drive, and then OSU scored their next drive and Michigan did not. The score was 21-28 going into the 4th when J.T. Barrett got injured on the first play. Michigan would go on to score one touchdown and Ohio would score two to make the final 42-28 OSU.

Source: ESPN

Iron Bowl

The Auburn Tigers played the Alabama Crimson Tide in The Iron Bowl on Saturday. Alabama took a nice lead after the first, 6-14, but lost it after the second and were losing by five, 26-21, due to two big touchdowns after the half. Alabama fought back, though. They were within two, 36-34, after the third. The fourth was total domination. Alabama outscored the Tigers, 8-21, and won 55-44 (this time, there was no crazy field goal return).

Source: ESPN

In The Rulebook

When a referee in hockey calls slashing, you might not know what the referee is talking about. And now you will. Slashing is a penalty in hockey and occurs when a player swings his stick at another player, like a baseball bat.

The COMIC

By: Shailen Pathy

COOL PLAYS

The '3 Fingered Grab'

Even though the Giants lost at home last Sunday Night Football, one of the most amazing catches took place for the Giants.

Odell Beckham, Jr. had a great game. He had 2 receiving touchdowns and over 100 yards. His second touchdown, though, may have made history for the best catch in history.

Beckham was along the sideline, running and running. He was getting pushed and shoved. After the play, they thought he had went out of bounds and luckily, he was in. When he reached the end zone, the pass was in the air. It would have fell out of bounds, but Beckham did an insane thing. He bent his back all the way back and reached out with his thumb, index and middle fingers and... It's a catch!!!! There was a flag, but not on Odell. It was probably the craziest catch ever made.

What 2 Look 4

28-24

Predict

v

Games Of Last Week

3-1

26-

93-

