Jameis Winston Out

Jameis Winston, 2013 Hiesman Award Winner with Florida State University, has been benched for yesterday's game against Clemson for an obscene action on campus. "Based upon the results of our continuing investigation of Tuesday's incident involving Jameis Winston, we have decided to not play him for the entire game against Clemson on Saturday night," Stan Wilcox and Garnett S. Stokes announced.

Falcons clobber Buccaneers

The Atlanta Falcons clobbered the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in a killer 56-14 game for an exciting Thursday Night Football game. During the game, Devin Hester, Falcons Wide Receiver, broke the record for punt return touchdowns, previously held by Deion Sanders. Hester told the Sun-Times in August that he thinks he belongs in the Hall of Fame "once my career is said and done."

Jeter's Farewell Season

Derek Jeter has been one of the best Yankees of all-time. Derek Jeter has played 19 rocking seasons, from rookie to retirement, he has always been 'the captain'. Derek has been donated all sorts of things, from a baseball glove chair set to a kayak with number 2. Gatorade has published an amazing commercial about Jeter's final season. There is a patch for Jeter's last year and an awesome 'RE2PECT' shirt for Jeter. Jeter has been honored in so many ways and has played a spectacular 19 seasons as a Yankee.

DeGrom ties modern baseball record

Jacob DeGrom, Mets star rookie pitcher, has broken the modern baseball record of strikeouts to start a game, which is 8, previously held by Jim Deshaies. DeGrom now holds the Mets most strikeouts to start a game. "That felt good," DeGrom later said. With 13 total strikeouts, DeGrom gets a career high and the most by a Mets starter this season. Even though the Mets fell in a 6-5 loss to the Marlins, DeGrom made some Mets history on the mound.

Goodell Speaks

Roger Goodell, N.F.L. commissioner for 8 seasons, speaks out about domestic violence. "Over the past couple days, I've spoken to several NFL team executives, and they told me repeatedly the league is undivided in its support of its commissioner. The executives said there has been no consideration given to replacing him," the Buffalo News reported. As of now, Goodell has been under fire for the way he and the N.F.L. has handled Domestic Violence against players.
