Teams With Coolest Jersey

There are so many teams that have awesome jerseys, but some are better than others. If you really look closely, you will find that most of the cool jerseys belong to college teams. One of the coolest college jerseys are the Oregon Ducks all white jerseys, which has green numbers and a yellow outline of them. Another cool college jersey is the Boise State blue jersey, which has orange sleeves and gray numbers with a orange outline. A patriotic uniform is the Star Spangled Banner uniform worn by Maryland, which has the words to the star spangled band written on the shoulders, bottom of the cleats, and the helmet. Nebraska's jersey is mostly red with shiny black and silver numbers. A really cool jersey is the new TCU gray came uniforms.

The Jets Are Back In It

On a special Saturday night game, the Jests travelled to Dallas to face the Cowboys. On the first drive of the game, the Cowboys hit a 27 yard field goal to put them up, 3-0. The Cowboys were forced to punt their next drive, which helped the Jets to a touchdown, but a two point conversion failed, so the score was 6-3 Jets. The Cowboys again punted, and so did the Jets. Another interception was thrown by the Cowboys. That led to a Jets field goal to move the score to 9-3 Jets. After one punt by each team, The Cowboys drove down the field and scored a touchdown, which put them up, 10-9. After the half, the Jets had an interception, but the Cowboys did the same right after. The Cowboys settled for a field goal, which widened the gap between the scores at 13-9. 3 drives later, The Jets came right back with a touchdown, which put them up 16-13. The Cowboys were right on their tail, though, as they tied the game with a field goal. The Jets took the lead with a field goal, and then the Jets intercepted the ball to end the game. The Jets are now in good shape at 9-5 and on their way to a wild card game. The Cowboys have been officially eliminated from the playoffs after a 4-10 record.
