

THE SPORTIER

Arrieta Again!

On Thursday, Cubs ace pitcher Jake Arrieta threw another no-hitter, his 2nd in less than a year. Arrieta broke the Reds streak of 7,110 games without being held hitless, which is an impressive number of games. The Cubs put up sixteen runs, while the Reds put up zero, their only chances on base being the 4 batters Arrieta walked. While the Reds couldn't hit, the Cubs smashed the ball, Kris Bryant having 2 home runs, including a grand slam. Anthony Rizzo, Ben Zobrist, and David Ross also had home runs that supported the Cubs victory and no-hitter.

Source: NBC

If Jake Arrieta can throw 2 no-hitters in less than a year, can he throw 4 in less than 2?

Curry Gets Injured, Comes Back After Warriors Go 1-1

Golden State Warriors star point guard Stephen Curry had an ankle injury, which put him out for the next game, which the Warriors lost by 1 to the Rockets, 96-97. Curry's injury occurred in the first half of Game 1 of the NBA Playoffs, Round 1. Curry rolled his ankle during the half and tried to come back on the court in the 3rd quarter, but was forced to sit after he couldn't play like he usually does. Curry didn't play the next game, which the Warriors were able to win thanks to the 34 points scored by Klay Thompson. Curry sat out another game, but this time the Warriors lost. In the first quarter the Game, the Rockets scored almost double what the Warriors scored in the same quarter. Maybe, the Warriors need Curry to help the team, but the team should also be able to work without Curry.

Source: ESPN

Stephen Curry injured his ankle, putting him out for 2 of the Round 1 Playoff NBA games.