Thunder Upset Spurs

In the second round of the NBA Playoffs, the Oklahoma City Thunder upset the San Antonio Spurs. The Spurs were supposed to have a very good series against the Warriors in the West Finals, but the Thunder will take their place after a 4-2 series win. Going into the 4th Game, the series was close at 2-1 Spurs. It looked like the Thunder had a chance, but not as big as the Spurs. The Thunder tied the series in Game 2 with a win, but then lost to the Spurs and were down 2-1. From there, the Thunder won 3 more games, led by Kevin Durant, who scored a total of 155 points in the series, 41 coming in Game 3. The Thunder will face the Warriors, a tough team, but the Thunder have a chance.
